

Greetings,

I would love you to meet Alaura O'Dell, writer, writing coach, artist, entrepreneur, and the host of the Write Your Story, Heal Your Life Summit: Make a Living from Your Writing and Art.

Alaura recently interviewed me for her free upcoming video series, Write Your Story, Heal Your Life. She's created this educational and informational interview series for anyone who is interested in transforming lives (including their own) with their art and who wants to make a living while doing it!

Alaura personally knows the power of the written word and art to transform and heal. In the interviews, she opens up about going from a childhood living in the slums of London to having a successful career in the music and art world! After many years as an entrepreneurial artist, Alaura decided to dedicate her life to writing and coaching others in their creative endeavors. At age 45, she signed up for University for the first time. In 2016, she received her MFA in Writing and Consciousness, and she now works full-time as a writer and writing coach. Alaura is a firm believer in writing as a tool for anyone (whether self-identified writer and artist or not) to live their most inspiring and creative life.

In this complimentary, educational series, Alaura interviews internationally best-selling authors, publishers, writing coaches, artists, and entrepreneurs—many who make incomes of Six Figure Figures and Up!

The interviews cover a wide-range of subjects, including:

- Finding the Courage to Write Your Story
- Delving into the Stories of Your Family & Ancestors
- Finding a Publisher for Your Book
- All the Information You Need to Know on How to Self-Publish
- Hiring a Writing Coach
- Starting Your Book
- Finishing Your Book—and Selling It!
- How To Have Amazon Publish Your Book
- And, How To Turn Your Book Into A Screenplay!

In this interview series you will learn everything (well, almost everything 😊) you've always wanted to know about how to finally get your artistic work out into the world, using writing and art to heal, and making a living from your art, as a writer, artist, coach, entrepreneur, or all of the above!

If you want to finish your book, start your book, share your personal story, and find out how to share it with the world, this is the series I recommend watching. There are so many resources and free gifts!

Here is the LINK to register and have the series delivered to you for FREE.
